

The Fox went out on a stormy night

Ď7

And he prayed for the moon to give him light,

G

For he'd many a mile to go that night

G

Before he reached the town-o, town-o, town-o,

C

He had many a mile to go that night

D7

Before he reached the town-o...

He ran till he came to a great big pen The ducks and the chickens they sat therein Said, "A couple of you will grease my chin Before I leave this town-o, town-o, town-o...

He grabbed the grey goose by the neck And he threw a duck across his back He didn't mind their quack, quack, quack And their legs all dangling down-o, down-o, down-o...

Old Mother Flipper-Flopper jumped out of bed Out of the window she popped her head She cried, "John, John, the grey goose is gone And the fox is on the town-o, town-o, town-o...

John he ran to the top of the hill and he blew his whistle both loud and shrill And the fox he said, "I'd better flee with my kill" For they'll soon be on my trail-o, trail-o, trail-o...

He ran till he came to his cozy den And he counted little ones, eight, nine, ten They said, "Now Daddy, better go back again For it must be a mighty fine town-o, town-o, town-o...

Then the fox and his wife without any strife
Cut up the goose with a carving knife
And they never had such a supper in their life
And the little ones nibbled on the bones-o, bones-o, bones-o...
