Furr

D G D A
Yeah, when I was only seventeen
D G D A
I could hear the angels whispering
G D G D A
So I drove into the woods and wandered aimlessly about
G D A
Until I heard my mother shouting through the fog
D G D A
It turned out to be the howling of a dog
G D
Or a wolf to be exact
G D A
The sound sent shivers down my back
G D A
But I was drawn into the pack and before long

D G D A
They allowed me to join in and sing their song
G D
So from the cliffs and highest hills
G D A
Yeah, we would gladly get our fill
G D A
Howling endlessly and shrilly at the dawn
D G D A
And I lost the taste for judging right from wrong
G D
For my flesh had turned to fur
G D A
Yeah, and my thoughts they surely were
G D A
Turned to instinct and obedience to God

G D G D A
You can wear your fur like a river on fire
G D G D A
But you'd better be sure if you're making God a liar
G D G D A
I'm a rattlesnake, babe, I'm like fuel on a fire
G D
So if you're gonna get made
G D A G A
Don't be afraid of what you've learned

D G D A
On the day that I turned twentythree
D G D A
I was curled up underneath a dogwood tree
G D G D A
When suddenly a girl, her skin the color of a pearl
G D A
She wandered aimlessly, but she didn't seem to see

D G D A
She was listening for the angels just like me
G D
So I stood and looked about
G D A
I brushed the leaves off of my snout
G D A
And then I heard my mother shouting through the trees

D G D A
You should have seen that girl go shaky at the knees
G D
So I took her by the arm
G D A
We settled down upon a farm
G D A
And raised our children up as gently as you please

G D
And now my fur has turned to skin
G D A
And I've been quickly ushered in
G D A
To a world that I confess I do not know
D G D A
But I still dream of running careless through the snow
G D
And through the howling winds that blow
G D A
Across the ancient distant flow
G D A
To fill our bodies up like water 'til we know

G D G D A
You can wear your fur like a river on fire
G D G D A
But you'd better be sure if you're making God a liar
G D G D A
I'm a rattlesnake, babe, I'm like fuel on a fire
G D
So if you're gonna get made
G D A G A
Don't be afraid of what you've learned
